

UNITARIANS AND THE FEDERATION

Action of Committee Bars Them From It

AN EXPRESSION OF VIEWS AS TO THEIR EXCLUSION.

While Not Intending to Press Themselves In Members of the Church Are Curious.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Rev. Dr. M. J. Savage, of the church of the Messiah, Unitarian, said today that the executive committee of the inter-church conference on federation which is to be held in this city next month, was as consistent in voting to exclude representatives of the Unitarians from the conference as were the Catholics who turned Protestants and Protestants who turned Catholics in the Middle Ages.

"The Rev. Dr. Savage said: "That such an action has been taken caused no surprise to those who assert that a belief in the divinity of Christ is all important to salvation are at least consistent in excluding us from their work of saving mankind. This we have to admit. They are consistent just as we are Catholics in the Middle Ages. Disbelief means eternal ruin, therefore cut it out, root and branch; kill the body, but let the soul live. It was consistent, was it not? But don't you think it is rather late to be living up to such ideals of consistency?"

And even consistency itself gets muddled now and then. For instance, in the treatment accorded to our Unitarian young men in the Y. M. C. A. That organization is anxious that they should come in. It is not their money, but in return it is forced by its consistent purpose to deny them the voice in its management and the vote in regard to its affairs that is given to young men of other churches.

Donald Sage Mackay, a member of the executive committee of the inter-church federation, said of the exclusion: "Such action could not properly be taken by such a body as this inter-church federation. This is not a legislative body. It has not even a sub-committee to pass on doctrinal qualifications."

"It is simply a body which has invited Christian churches to send representatives to discuss methods of spreading still further the gospel of righteousness."

"The Unitarians say they are Christians and desire to join in the work. I can see any such condition as this does not take their word for it, and I do not. Lots of us accept them as Christians; I know that I do."

"Many of us feel deeply the debt we owe to Channing, and we are anxious to have the benefit of his conference. The action taken was unwise, in my opinion."

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Rev. Thomas R. Slicer of All-Souls' Unitarian church, speaking for the Unitarians, yesterday made the following statement regarding the action of the officials of the Church Federation in deciding to exclude Unitarian delegates from the coming meetings of the federation.

"Let me emphasize, first of all, that we feel no resentment, but it seems to us Unitarians that here is federation without federation. When unity is professed it is strangely lacking. I am not for it, for it is unity. We stand for it, but we do not take exception to what has been done, but it comes out in singular contrast to the action of the New York state conference on religion, which admits to its platform Jew as well as Gentile, and which is representative of real federation. It seems hardly worth while to federate, and have the attempt take on the aspect of a farce."

"At the beginning, there are excluded from the inter-church conference on federation any persons representing any religious body, the conference at once becomes absurdly illogical and inconsistent. As I understand it, the Rev. Drs. Edward Everett Hale and Samuel A. Eliot and former Secretary of the Navy John D. Long were appointed in this wise."

"The federation of Unitarian churches, with headquarters in Boston, named them, and notice of their appointment was sent to the Rev. Dr. Sanford the secretary. Dr. Sanford sent a letter in reply stating that, upon careful consideration, it had been decided to restrict the invitations to the conference. There the incident rests. It is the official action of the federation which is concerned."

"Every well educated between right-minded people occupies ground that is fertile and possible for cultivation—just so much of a Christian waste. Wells are generally considered not to be needed, except between herds of wild cattle. While we are not going to press ourselves in, we would like to know what the trouble may be, and why and where and when the limitation of invitation begins."

"The general secretary of the National Federation is Rev. Dr. E. R. Sanford, who said yesterday: "I took no action without first consulting our full committee. The limitation was early made to such bodies as unquestionably accept Jesus Christ as the head of the church. Ours is a religious sense. I feel sure that our Unitarian friends know where our limitation begins, and where it ends. In my letter to Dr. Eliot I was particular to say that personally few men are held in more general esteem than the three whom the Unitarians named. I put that check from the people as it has received during the past eight months. Heretofore it simply has overrun all competition or ignored it entirely. Now it is obliged to reckon with it."

"The Kansas oil producers are doing very well. An independent pipe line has been financed by the Cudahy interests. It will extend from the Kansas and Indian Territory fields to St. Louis, where a big refinery will be erected. The pipe line enterprise will involve an expenditure of about $6,000,000 and all the necessary money has been provided."

AMAZING DISCOVERY MADE BY DISSECTORS OF CATT'S REMAINS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—What is regarded as a wonderful discovery by the medical profession was made yesterday at the autopsy performed on the body of George William Catt, whose body, in accordance with his will, was taken to Bellevue hospital medical schools to be dissected to benefit medical and surgical research. The pancreas, which performs the same functions as the gall, supply the smaller intestine with gastric juices to aid digestion, was found to be decayed, a condition which probably had prevailed for many months. It was found to have withered away to almost nothing and the surgeons present at the autopsy declare there is no other case known of a man living with a withered pancreas.

ONLY FOUR LEFT IN WOMEN'S GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP MATCH.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Out of the sixty-six starters in the women's national championship golf tournament, which began last Monday at the Morris Country Club's links, at Convent Station, N. J., only four survived at the end of today's play. These are Miss Georgiana Bishop, the present champion, Bridgeport, Conn.; Miss Margaret Curtis, Essex county, Massachusetts; Miss Keyes, Concord, Mass., and Miss Pauline Mackay, of Oakley, Mass. The pairs in the semifinals tomorrow will be Miss Grace Keys, Concord, Mass., vs. Miss Margaret Curtis, Essex county, Mass., and Miss Bishop, Bridgeport, Conn., vs. Miss Pauline Mackay, Oakley, Mass.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY AT BAKERSFIELD

NEGRO RANCHMAN KILLED OTHER NEGRO AND HIMSELF.

Tragedy Grew Out of Quarrel Which Was Followed by Murderer's Discharge.

BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 12.—This evening at the Jewett Dairy ranch, four miles west of this city, Anton A. Cross, a negro formerly employed as a ranch hand, killed another negro ranch hand, and then shot himself.

"The tragedy began when Cross was discharged by Manager Simmons of the ranch. For some days previous to this Cross had been quarreling with and abusing the manager and as Cross appeared to be the aggressor and as he had been in his duties, he was told to go."

Nothing further was heard from him until he appeared at the ranch this afternoon. He loitered around the premises and when Lee had commenced his evening milking in an isolated cow pen Cross walked up to him and without a word of warning, emptied his revolver. It appears that he was so nervous only one bullet took effect. This entered under Lee's right arm and death was instantaneous. Cross then pulled his revolver, pressed it upward beneath the right side of his jaw, and fired. His act was seen by another farm hand who had heard the shooting. When he reached the scene both men were dead.

MOSCOW STRIKES CONTINUE TO CAUSE RIOTS AND AFFRAYS.

MOSCOW, Oct. 12.—Aside from affrays at the Dobroff and Nabolitz factories between the strike and anti-strike factions and an incident in Trotsky street, where a grocery man was injured by the strain ran amok and emptied his revolver, without doing any injury, there were no special troubles here today. The strike has taken a peaceful turn. The strikers are spreading to factories both inside and outside Moscow, and the pupils in the preparatory schools are threatening to strike.

KANSAS BEHIND THE PRESIDENT

WILL SUPPORT RAILROAD RATE LEGISLATION.

Assurances Given in Notable Conference by Congressman Campbell

—The Oil Outlook.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Railroad rate legislation and the oil situation with special reference to the Middle West field were discussed today by the president and Representative Campbell of Kansas. Campbell talked briefly of railroad rates and the contest between the state of Kansas and the oil combination. He assured the president that the people of Kansas stood squarely at his back on the question of this check from the people as it has received during the past eight months. Heretofore it simply has overrun all competition or ignored it entirely. Now it is obliged to reckon with it."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The revelation of the Paris Mail of alleged reasons for the resignation of Delcasse from the foreign ministry and the allegation that Great Britain offered military aid to France in the event of a war with Germany, while they are sought as pretexts, are causing much irritation in the English press, as placing Great Britain in a false position in the minds of other European nations. It is quite unlikely that Foreign Minister Lansdowne will take any notice of the demand of many newspapers for a formal denial of this alleged offer of military aid.

EX-SENATOR EMMONS IS FOUND GUILTY OF CRIME

Heartrending Grief of His Faithful Wife Caused Painful Scene In Court Room

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 12.—Crying out in futile protest against an inexorable decree of justice, hysterical with the shock of her sudden bereavement and utterly estranged, Mrs. E. J. Emmons thrust herself upon her knees in Judge Hart's court room this evening at the instant a verdict of guilty was returned by the jury which has been for five weeks engaged in trial of her husband on a charge of boodling. All the eagerness and suppressed excitement that attended the consummation of the long trial was forgotten in the sudden realization of a wife's grief, all the stern formality of the courtroom was swept away in a wave of pity that surged from every heart and when Emmons, seemingly unmindful of the decree just rendered against him, sprang to his wife's assistance, every head was turned, the voice of Judge Hart faltered, and the proceedings stopped.

Never has there been a more pitiable one than that of Mrs. Emmons, when so many criminals have found how hard is the way of the transgressor. Her short period engaged in deliberation conveyed to many of those in attendance a belief that the jury would return a verdict of guilty, but Emmons, his wife and his attorneys were to all outward appearances as confident as at any time during the trial. Had there been any indication given of the result it is probable that the friends of Mrs. Emmons would have prevailed upon her to remain away from the courtroom during the last trying scene.

Emmons bore up bravely and paid not the slightest outward attention to the verdict or the subsequent proceedings while the session was in progress. He appeared much more concerned over the condition of Mrs. Emmons and while the responses from the jurymen were called for and made, his back was turned to Judge Hart, the clerk's desk, and the jury.

Gently he raised the stricken woman from her knees and while she was being carried to her home, he was seen to sob as if he were half-fainting. Vainly he tried to soothe and quiet her. Her sobs, broken by marvellous pleadings, echoed through the still court room. Until the mother caught sight of Edith, her little daughter, whose face was turned toward the back of a big chair at her father's side, and whose form was shaken by convulsive sobs. Again Mrs. Emmons fell upon her knees but this time it was not in the abandonment of despair. Tenderly she raised the golden head and the agony in her voice was repressed as she endeavored to dry the little girl's tears.

Half the spectators in the court room were crying at the time Mrs. Emmons, with Mrs. Eli Wright, occupied the seat just behind her husband. On the stroke of 8 the jury filed into the court room and took their seats in the box. Emmons did not even turn around as the door opened, nor did he look in the direction when the verdict was rendered. Mrs. Emmons scanned the faces of the first two or three, then turned away. On the heels of the jurymen Grove L. Johnson entered and took a seat at Emmons' side.

Clerk M. J. Sullivan called the names of the twelve jurymen and said, as he has said many times since the trial began, "All present, your Honor."

Then Judge Hart, addressing the jury, asked: "Have you agreed upon a verdict, gentlemen?"

"We have," replied the jurymen in chorus.

"The foreman will read the verdict," directed the court, and W. H. Sheburne, rising from his seat, read: "The State of California, vs. E. J. Emmons, defendant. We, the jury, in the above entitled action, find the defendant guilty as charged."

Almost before the people in the courtroom had grasped the full significance of the result, a cry from Mrs. Emmons had startled all present. The wife of the convicted man thrust herself upon her knees, upon the floor, her head resting in the lap of Mrs. Wright. An intense silence succeeded in interruption and for a full minute there was no sound save the hysterical sobs of Mrs. Emmons. Judge Hart, visibly affected, was the first to react. He directed the clerk to poll the jury and after reading the verdict Clerk Sullivan asked each member if he had agreed to the verdict. Amid the sobs of Mrs. Emmons and her frenzied outburst of grief at the sight of her child which had affected every one in the courtroom, the proceedings, after the date for arguing the motion for a new trial had been set, were speedily brought to an end.

Half of the jurymen were crying as they left the court room. District Attorney Seymour proceeded then up the stairway, and as he passed them, one of the men who voted to find Emmons guilty said: "D—n such work. You'll never get me on another jury."

Judge Hart, looking on the verge of tears, sought the privacy of his chambers and in a few moments the corridor was empty except for Mrs. Emmons, two other women and Attorney Wright who accompanied the wife of the convicted ex-senator.

Judge Hart had made an order remanding Emmons to the custody of the sheriff and as he left the court room Deputy Sheriff George Wittenbroeck accompanied him down the stairway that leads to the jail. Mrs. Emmons followed through the street entrance and in a moment the husband and wife were together in an inner apartment of the sheriff's office. Mrs. Emmons remained until some time afterward. Emmons was locked up as soon as she departed, it being evident that she had occupied since the first day of the trial.

PRINCE TROUBELSKOY, NOTED RUSSIAN LIBERAL, DIED OF APPOXY

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 12.—Prince Sergius Troubelskoy was stricken with apoplexy today while attending a conference with Minister of Education Glassoff. He died in two hours.

Prince Troubelskoy was regarded as the foremost liberal in Russia. For a long time he was president of the zemstvo congresses of the government of Moscow and headed the delegation which in June last presented the petition of all Russian zemstvos and municipalities congress to Emperor Nicholas. On September 10, 1904, he was elected rector of the University of Moscow by a large majority, being the first elected head of a Russian university since 1880, when the government assumed the right of nomination. The election of the prince removed him from the list of candidates for the national assembly, in which it was hoped he would be one of the prominent leaders, and perhaps its president. Prince Troubelskoy was a marshal of the nobility.

ARIZONA JUDGE IS ASKED TO RESIGN AFTER INVESTIGATION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Associate Justice Tucker of the Territorial Supreme court of Arizona, has been requested to resign. Several months ago charges were preferred against Justice Tucker involving his personal conduct as a member of the territorial judiciary. These charges were presented to the president and were referred by him to the department of justice for investigation. The request for the resignation was based on the findings of the investigation.

TOKIO WELCOMED BRITISH ADMIRAL

Great Demonstration Greeted Sir Henry Noel

MARKING CORDIAL FEELING OF FRIENDSHIP.

Close Alliance of Two Nations Was Evincied in Speeches and Decorations.

TOKIO, Oct. 12.—Vice Admiral Sir Henry Gerald Noel, commanding the British squadron now at Yokohama, arrived here this morning by a special train from Yokohama and was received at the railroad station by a large number of officials. After an exchange of greetings, the British admiral and his party entered carriages and were driven through the streets lined by thousands to Ribiya court where the mayor of Tokyo gave a garden party in honor of the distinguished visitor.

From early this morning Tokio was on the tip-toe of expectancy and anxious to witness the arrival of the admiral representing Japan's great ally. It was a perfect day. The streets were decorated with flags and flowers to an elaborate extent which recalled the rejoicings over the Japanese victories at the Yalu river, Liao Yang, Mukden, Port Arthur and the sea of Japan, the difference today being that the British Union Jack and everywhere in evidence. The feeling of depression of the last few weeks had been completely disarmed. The streets were replaced by buoyant good humor among the crowds which assembled early in the morning at all points of passage. Around the Shinjuku railroad station and along the line of march.

The special train with Admiral Noel and his staff captains arrived at the station at 11 o'clock. They were met by a large number of the navy and army and others, who were drawn up in line on the platform. Those present included Marquis Ito, president of the privy council and the cabinet minister, and a host of other high officials. Admiral Noel and his party entered imperial carriages and were driven to Hibiya Park through streets lined with cheering thousands. The admiral bowed to the crowds and then the ovations until the entrance of Hibiya Park was reached.

There was a magnificent triumphal arch with a dome emblemized with yellow chrysanthemums against a green background. The park was packed with the guests who had been invited to attend the mayor's garden party. Among the high officials present at the party were the governor, president of the house of peers, who studied in England years ago and who on this occasion paid the most marked attention to the proceedings.

MISS STRUNSKY'S LECTURE ON WILLIAM MORRIS.

The Personality of the Speaker Gave an Added Interest to the Entertaining Talk.

The members of the Parlor Lecture club and others were privileged yesterday afternoon to hear Miss Anna Strunsky, lecturer and authoress, deliver a most entertaining lecture on "William Morris, Poet, Craftsman and Artist." To hear this famous man discussed by one of ordinary powers might have proved uninteresting, perhaps; but discussed as he was by this charming young woman, it was delightful. Enthusiasm glowed in the face of each one in the audience as at the close of the lecture she was given the opportunity to speak with Miss Strunsky, who was showered with flattering words of congratulation.

As she stood before her audience to speak one saw a slip of a girl apparently with intense brown eyes confirmed by a firm mouth and general air of earnestness—unmistakably the key note of the young speaker's character. Her simple, direct manner, was in marked contrast with her wonderful command of language and eloquence of expression. The very force of her nature commanded continuous attention. There was perhaps a shade of disappointment felt among the club members that Miss Strunsky was not to speak on her favorite theme "Russia"—a subject very near her heart. At the close of the lecture, however, Miss Strunsky graciously acquiesced to the general demand for "something about Russia."

"I feel like a prima donna endorsed," began Miss Strunsky as the applause greeted her re-appearance. "There is nothing that reaches the heart like the story of a great soul. William Morris, craftsman, artist, worker and striver after good in a human cause, was a great soul." The speaker told first of his birthplace and parentage, the fact of his having been of the middle classes being significant in his later life. He was a building peasant in a country town. The influence of a tender mother with whom there was more of a feeling of camaraderie than of enmity, he was early deprived of all feeling of nobility and formed instead extreme radical opinions. At an early age his art spirit was dedicated to his work and his powers found self-expression. He became an architect, an ordinary sense, but in the ideal sense. He was essentially an idealist. With a few of his friends was formed a sort of fellowship which took the form of a monastery in England and resembled in purpose the misericordia of Florence. His associates were Burne-Jones, Dixon, the mathematician, Ruskin, Morris, and all intellectual magicians of conventional life.

Morris became the editor of the organ known as the Oxford-Cambridge magazine—started by this fellowship of intellectual men. It lasted two years. For this magazine Morris wrote his first poem—one which revealed his intellectual and spiritual power. Morris was a "beat" which showed itself in a story of class life at Oxford, told entertainingly by Miss Strunsky. His life here meant much to him—art, culture, inspiration and crowning achievements. "This body of pre-Raphaelites headed by Morris," a familiar name applied to Morris, started a commercial firm—an open work shop in London, where arts and crafts were produced. This influence threw a glamour of spring over society and had a marked effect upon the people about them—an influence strongly felt in the world of art today. Morris finally carried on the work alone. He loved the beautiful so warmly, so passionately that at a loss he manufactured furniture and rugs—all to create a new art feeling and people by practical methods to surround themselves with the good, the true and the beautiful. He said, "Have nothing that you do not know to be useful or believe to be beautiful." He taught honest construction of articles—outside and in; a beautiful, honest building. This may seem fanciful and extreme yet on deeper thought it is ideal. In his work he may be beautiful the man who built it must be inspired—he must enjoy the work. Then democracy entered his work. Why should an artist not be an artisan as well? Morris was more versatile than Gladstone, as the latter himself declared. His joy of expression through labor with his hands was marvelous.

In appearance Morris was a "young Viking" as Miss Strunsky impressed upon her hearers—the handsome man of his time in all Europe and stood for all that was noble, uplifting and inspiring. He worked among the poorer classes whose condition he pitied. He taught them to believe that expression is the only thing in life and means immortality. This chance of expression is taken away from the poor who toil simply to keep the wolf from the door. "I speak at length upon this phase of William Morris," apologized the little speaker, "to show why this man has been called a poet-philosopher—how he merged the artist into the man and thus found his best expression."

He was asked to be poet laureate of England, but was too thorough a democrat to accept. At the age of 48 he became a socialist, not only in name, but enlisted in the ranks, and just here Miss Strunsky stepped to tell of how he spoke for two hours and a half with all the eloquence at his command to half a dozen men gathered in a hall. "Dream of John Bull," and told the story graphically. Morris used few latinized words in his writings—nearly always pure Anglo-Saxon, of which he was a thorough master. Miss Strunsky recited in a fascinating manner lines from his "Earthly Paradise," in which he calls himself an "idle singer of an empty day."

In conclusion Miss Strunsky—her voice full of pathos—told of the close of a life which was given to the betterment of society. His physician declared his death due to a disease which he called "William Morris"—nothing else expressed it.

Miss Strunsky leaves soon for the East to lecture and later to Europe to study. Her writings show a depth of intelligence rarely formed in one so young, and her gift of expression equals her intellectual accomplishments. Locally she is known as a collaborator with Jack London in the "Kempston Waite Letters," which brought her into prominence in San Francisco some few years ago. She was born in Russia, but was educated in America, having been a graduate of Stanford university. Her family is one of prominence in San Francisco. Evidently the future holds great things for this energetic little socialist. Many had the opportunity of meeting her last night at an informal reception given by Mrs. J. S. Jones, her hostess, while in Fresno.

BANKERS DISCUSS
BANKING METHODSTHE SCOTTISH SYSTEM EXPLAINED
IN ALL ITS SIMPLICITY.

Secretary Shaw's Plan for Adding Elasticity to the Currency Approved
By Committee.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Junkets in all directions around Washington and a program of oratory and business confronted the thousands of members of the American Bankers' association in convention here today. After the session in the Columbia theater in the morning, the bankers divided according to personal inclination. Some went to Mount Vernon and points down the Potomac, some witnessed the exhibition drill of the cavalry at Fort Myers, while others availed themselves of the many tourist excursions of the city.

The program of the convention today included first, a discussion of practical banking questions by the convention. The discussion was limited to thirty minutes and speeches to five minutes. Professor Joseph French Johnson, dean of the New York university school of commerce, accounts and finance, told the convention of the advantages of commercial education.

Scottish Bank System. An interesting history of the Scottish systems of banking was presented to the convention by Robert Blythe, general manager of the Union Bank of Scotland, located at Glasgow. The first Scottish bank was established in 1805. Today there are but ten banks in Scotland, seven doing nine-tenths of the business. The chief characteristic of the system is the right of the banks to issue the one pound note, as the result of which Scotland retains today her paper currency almost to the exclusion of metal currency while the reverse is true in England.

Blythe maintained that it was the one pound note that enabled the network of branch banks to be maintained in Scotland and that encouraged the savings of the poorer classes. With the English five pound note and her metal currency, he said, these branch banks could not have been maintained. The aggregate deposits of the ten Scottish banks reach $500,000,000.

Another distinctive feature of the system is its credit account, wherein a trader or manufacturer is enabled to borrow from the banks temporarily by executing a bond to which he gets the signature of two or three men dealing with his own. The bank accepts the bond and honors checks up to the amount named in it, obviating the pledging of security. Interest is not charged except on the amount drawn. The uniform interest discount and commission charged by the ten banks is a distinctive feature. During the last half century there have been but two bank failures in Scotland.

Boosting the Association. Walker Hill, president of the Mechanics' American National Bank of St. Louis, delivered an address on "The Benefits of Membership in the American Bankers' Association." He said:

"At the very beginning of its career this association set before itself a wise and patriotic purpose, and from that day to this, it, as a body, and its members as individuals, have given freely to the government valuable assistance in carrying out every financial measure which the government has undertaken. Indeed, the aid which the members of this association have given to the authorities officially charged with the financial interests of the country has been not only frequent and valuable, but in many instances that assistance has been practically indispensable, for had not the government's proposals met with the approval of the American Bankers' association and most of its members, those proposals would have been so discarded, both in this country and abroad, that they would have been incapable of execution. Indeed, there are few, if any, other similar associations that have rendered more continuous and valuable services to the government."

Legislative Proposals.

W. G. Carvels of St. Louis read a communication containing a resolution pledging the convention to send a delegation to congress to secure a joint commission of legislators, bankers and experts to formulate some plans of complete reorganization of the monetary system. It was referred to the executive council. The convention authorized the appointment of a standing committee of five as a law committee. The new committee was recommended by the executive council.

At the suggestion of L. E. Pierson of the New York Exchange bank a committee of five was authorized to confer with a committee of shippers and carriers to agree on a uniform bill of lading.

Aid to Shipping.

Resolutions favoring government aid to shipping were presented from the executive council without recommendation, which served as a topic of discussion. Robert J. Lowery of Atlanta, the author of the resolutions, spoke in favor of the resolutions as did also E. J. Barker of Quincy, Ill.

Fletcher, president of the German National bank of Little Rock, Arkansas, opposed "subsidies" for any American industry. This declaration evoked the first applause on the subject. He hoped the resolutions would be defeated.

Upon a rising vote the resolutions were agreed to. The resolutions recite that the members of the association are deeply interested in the commercial and industrial interests of the whole country that it favors and most respectfully urges upon congress the passage of some measure to foster and encourage the upbuilding of the American merchant marine; that the ship subsidy measure which has received the consideration of congress is favored; that members of the association recommend and urge upon their respective senators and congressmen the necessity of action; and that an association congress is memorialized with a copy of the resolutions.

Currency Amendments.

The currency committee's report was then presented. The report states that if some plan of currency reform could be agreed upon, congress might be induced to take action. It was given as the opinion of the committee that such legislation should provide that United States notes of legal tenders should be retired if practicable.

Also that a sufficient reserve fund should be set aside in the United States treasury to provide for the redemption in gold of about $600,000,000 of silver outstanding; that the secretary of the treasury should have discretionary power to deposit in the national banks such portion of the surplus fund in excess of $30,000,000, whether derived from customs receipts or internal revenue, as he may deem proper to prevent absorption of money by the treasury, such deposits to be guaranteed by United States bonds or other securities acceptable to the secretary, an amendment or repeal of the limitation of $3,000,000 per month upon the withdrawal of circulation by national banks so that the limit should be either $6,000,000 or $10,000,000, or to abolish the limit, that expansion and contraction might in a measure become automatic, the issuance in times of great financial stress of supplemental currency, along the lines suggested by Secretary Shaw, so as to appear identical with the present national bank notes, but heavily taxed so as to secure its retirement as soon as stringent conditions had passed; this currency not to appear as any new form of money, but to be guaranteed by the government, and banks holding 50 per cent of their capital in government bonds to be permitted to issue the supplemental currency in limited amount. The committee questioned whether the time had come to depart from the present system of national bank circulation. The present output of $1,000,000 gold daily is regarded as alleviating the monetary situation and in a measure lessening the demand for additional circulation. No action was taken on the report by the convention.

BRUTAL BUTCHERY
BY A DEGENERATEMALE VICTIM'S BODY WAS CUT INTO PIECES.

Almost Incredible Brutality Revealed as

Result of Story Told by Room

Neighbor.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—The finding of a man's head in East Eighteenth street near Avenue C, early today, resulted in the discovery of an unusually revolting murder, the victim of which was Thomas Corcoran. Corcoran was killed probably last night in the house, No. 149 Third avenue. After the picking up of the head, the other portions of the body were found, cut in pieces, in the Third avenue house. The arms below the elbow and legs below the knees had been packed in a suit case, and the torso and remaining portions of the arms and legs were hidden in a clothes hamper in a room occupied by Frederick Bauer, an elevator runner. Bauer was arrested.

The point at which the head was found is more than a quarter of a mile away from 149 Third avenue. The head was wrapped in the Sunday supplement of a German newspaper and a blue and white shirt. The murder was discovered through a story told by George Lanole, who had a room adjoining Bauer's, and who rushed into a police station today saying that he had lain awake for hours listening to noises which he thought proceeded from Bauer's room.

He said that late last night he heard at least two men quarreling in the adjoining room. He heard a shot and the sound of someone falling on the floor. Then he went to sleep. About 2:30 this morning, Lanole said, he was awakened by strange noises in the room where the shot had been heard. Twice a man opened the door and went out, and Lanole, after laying awake listening for some time, decided that some of the sounds he heard were the noises of bones being broken. This suspicion caused him to notify the police.

Bauer was found entering his room by the police and said to them: "I found my room like this when I awoke this morning." He said that he had brought two men to his room last night, one a soldier, Bauer fell asleep while these men talked, he said, and when he awoke the soldier was gone, leaving the other's body as the police found it. The police found that Bauer's socks, the right arm of his undershirt and the right arm of an outer shirt were covered with blood. A badly nicked razor was found on top of a trunk in Bauer's room and a revolver with one chamber empty was also found in the room.

Bauer, who is 39 years old, is employed as an elevator man at the Union Square hotel, and when he went to work today he was sent home because of extreme nervousness. An examination of Corcoran's head showed that he had been shot in the face.

The police make the allegation that it was a crime of degeneracy. Corcoran came here from Ireland several years ago and made his home in this city with a married sister. He was formerly a ticket chopper on the elevated railroad.

THE SECOND MONUMENT
IN THE UNITED STATES TO CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS.

PUEBLO, Oct. 12.—At 11:30 o'clock today the veil was drawn aside from what is claimed to be the second monument in the United States erected to the memory of Christopher Columbus. The unveiling was by Miss Lena Chiariglione, daughter of the president of the United Italian societies. The monument is a beautiful bronze bust of the famous discoverer, standing about twelve feet high, and is located immediately in front of the Carnegie library building. The funds for building the monument were contributed by all the Italian societies in the country.

Mayor West accepted the gift on behalf of the city. Governor McDonald of Colorado followed with a brief address.

Among the notable persons who took part in the ceremonies were Mayer des Planches, Italian ambassador to Washington, as special representative of King Victor Emmanuel of Italy; Count Cortis, Italian consul at Denver; the two United States senators and three congressmen of this state.

BERKELEY VICTIM
TELLS NEW STORYAUSTRALIAN HORSEMAN WHO WAS ROBBED BY THUGS

Now Says He Lost Only $500 and Was the First to Get Out of the House.

BERKELEY, Oct. 12.—The efforts of the police of this city, Oakland, San Francisco and interior towns to find a trace of William Curtis, alias Brush, and his wife, who yesterday robbed William C. Ellis, the Australian horseman, after they had almost murdered him, have proven fruitless. They are suspected of being connected with the gang of outlaws, one of whom recently was shot dead by Policeman Lestranger, but no definite clue to their identity has yet been obtained. The pair was known to have taken an electric car from Berkeley into Oakland, and were seen on the car by a Berkeley woman, Mrs. F. H. Moulton, three blocks from the house in which the crime was committed. Mrs. Moulton identified the couple, her description tallying with that given by Ellis. She says the man and woman, who were greatly agitated and carried a grip, boarded the car on which she was riding but got off a few blocks from the starting point and hurried off on foot toward Oakland.

Ellis' condition is still critical, the physicians having operated on him during the night for his fractured skull, but he is expected to survive. He corrects the first story he told when in a dazed condition, his correction modifying the amount of money secured by the would-be murderers, but corroborating the police theory that a ghastly murder had been deliberately planned by Brush and his young female companion.

Ellis first stated while incoherent that $5000 was secured by the assailants from his clothes. He now says that he had but $1000 on his person, of which the thieves got $500, the remainder being found in his clothes by the police. Ellis has provided the detectives with a complete detailed description of the parties who had posed as his boon companions and intimate friends.

The following description of the fugitive couple has been sent out by the authorities:

William Brush, alias Curtis, 30 years old, six feet and one half an inch in height, weighs about 140 pounds, has a scar on the right cheek three inches in length, a shallow complexion, a long face and closely trimmed beard. He wore a $200 solitaire diamond ring on the second finger of the left hand and a gold chain with an eagle on the charm. The woman, Mikla Brush, is 20 years old, 5 feet 4 and one half inches in height, has black hair and full brown eyes and is of medium build. She wore a diamond brooch costing $200, and several diamond rings.

WNTY WEATHER REPORTS.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 12.—Still cold weather—the mercury going as low as 48 at New Orleans and under 40 in many other parts of the state, with frost in the middle section of the state, today increased the probability of the early extinction of yellow fever throughout Louisiana and Mississippi. In both states conditions are considered to be the brightest and with fear practically passed and people generally utterly tired of the restrictions put upon travel, it is expected that the idea of quarantine will soon be over.

WACO, Tex., Oct. 12.—A light frost, the first of the season, appeared here this morning.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 12.—The first snow of the season was reported today from various parts of Western Pennsylvania. At Greenville a heavy snow fell for five hours, causing hundreds of trees to break down under its weight.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 12.—The frost line extends this morning into the northern portions of the great states, while heavy and some killing frost occurred in the Ohio valley and in the Mississippi valley as far south as Memphis.

Good Templars' Grand Lodge. SAN JOSE, Oct. 12.—The grand lodge of Good Templars today held memorial services in remembrance of members who passed away during the year; adopted amendments to the constitution, and took steps to raise a larger fund for the maintenance of the Good Templars' orphan's home at Vallejo.

EMMONS.

"Damn such work: you'll never get me on another jury," said one of the jurors in the Emmons case, last night, witnessing the agony which he had been compelled to bring on Mrs. Emmons by finding her husband guilty of a crime which will send him to the penitentiary. And the juror and his colleagues, had done their duty resolutely, and little as they liked the job, they did not swerve from it. The rest of us, who are bound to congratulate that jury on its work, and to approve the result, need not relish the job any better. It is not merely that there is a natural sympathy with the innocent sufferers by any crime. There is also a certain personal commiseration for the criminal who happened to get caught, when bigger secondaries around him went free. This quartette of criminals were not the only hoodlums, nor the worst ones, in the legislature. They were merely the ones that got caught. And while the previous career of Emmons, in and out of office, led legitimately to this end, and while the desolation he has now imposed on his family is only the last of a long series of sufferings, nevertheless no one can feel much more personal glee than the profane juror expressed, at this sight of the havoc which just retribution brings on the guilty and the innocent alike.

But for the state of California this result is a subject of congratulation, and the gain in public virtue will be well worth the sacrifice of private ruin. Two of the four expelled senators are now convicted, and it is quite a matter of course that the other two will meet a like fate. That fate is known to every hoodlum and prospective hoodlum in the state of California. Every constituency at the next election, will be put on its guard not to send men to Sacramento capable of hoodluming. Every dishonest man who gets to the legislature will be put on his guard to distrust as a spy everybody who approaches him, colleague or brother, with a corrupt suggestion. Every possible briber will be warned to suspect every purchasable member as a possible "squealer," who may land him in the penitentiary while saving himself. Even the mere fear of the consequences will keep many men honest against their will. And the general moral revolt will put more honest men in the legislature, and give more encouragement to be honest to the mere weak and drifting members. It will be worth while to have transferred four senators from the capitol to the penitentiary if thereby the senate may be purified.

Over the desk of the presiding officer of the senate are the words: "Senator is est civitatis libertatem tuam"—it is the work of a senator to guard the liberty of the state. It would be a gruesome sarcasm to change that motto to "Senator is est libertatem suam tuam"—it is for a senator to look out for his own liberty, but the warning might be more effective than the exhortation.

COMMERCIAL LYNCH LAW.

"Commercial lynch law" is the phrase applied by Samuel Spencer, president of the Southern railway, to the proposed government regulation of railway rates. And in this phrase is concentrated the whole argument, on both sides. "Commercial lynch law" it would indeed be if the government undertook to regulate the price of groceries, clothing, hardware or jewelry. Barring famine or military emergency, the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker have a right to charge all they can get for their wares and the customers have a right to get those wares as cheap as they can. The public may regulate the soundness of meat or the weight of bread, but to dictate the price would be "commercial lynch law." On the other hand, to regulate the price of rail fares, street car fares, gas, water, electric light and telephone rates is not "commercial lynch law." At least it is done all over the world, wherever there are civilized municipalities. A cab is private property, so is a watch. It is no business of the police what price you get for your watch, provided you get it honestly, without cheating or false pretenses; but it is very decidedly the business of the police what price you get for the use of your cab, and in nearly every city in the world a passenger overcharged has the right to appeal at once to the nearest policeman for redress.

Now, this distinction is either valid or not valid, and railroads either belong to the second class of property or they do not. If there is only one class of property, and that the absolutely private ownership of its holders, and if the right to do as one pleases with one's own is of the very essence of ownership, then this attempt to regulate the use of railroad property by the control of persons not its owners is "commercial lynch law." And this is exactly the conception of railroad property implied by those who use this argument. But if there is another sort of property, whose private ownership involves a public character and responsibility, and if railroads are of this sort, then the argument is bosh. This is the whole question.

WASTED TAXES.

Professor Carl C. Plomin, the leading taxation expert of California and secretary of the tax commission appointed by the last legislature, said to his class in public finance at Berkeley the other day: "The tax rate in Alameda county is $1, and I can say that only 25 cents of this is applied to any legitimate purpose. The remainder is squandered in unnecessary outlayings that are fostered to provide jobs for politicians." Alameda county is not a particularly misgoverned county. Its government has had as much intelligence and as little scandal as any county, and its record is better than most counties. If three-fourths of the revenues of Alameda county are wasted, the proportion must be at least as large throughout the state. It would pay California to take Professor Plomin for a few years from the university, double or triple his salary, and have him make a detailed examination and report of the taxation and expenditures of the state and of the various counties. If one-tenth of the reforms he would suggest could be adopted, it would save ten times the cost of the investigation, in one year.

ESCAPED: CAUGHT

BURGULAR O'BRIEN GIVES OFFICERS A SCARE.

Leaps From Train Near Mojave But is Retaken by Constable at Tehachapi.

John O'Brien, the man taken prisoner in Los Angeles last Tuesday as a burglar, wanted in Fresno, made a sensational escape from the custody of Deputy Sheriff Pickett near Mojave at day-break yesterday morning and was recaptured at Tehachapi in the afternoon. He leaped from the train on a trolley car, and hid himself from them by the time the train could be stopped and the officer return. No details of the recapture have been received.

At the close of the Fresno session yesterday, when Deputy Sheriff Cummings went down to the 11:55 o'clock train to meet Pickett with his prisoner. No Pickett was there, but another officer, Sheriff J. P. Cochran of Los Angeles, told the story of how O'Brien got away.

Three officers, each with a prisoner, were making their way from Los Angeles to the direction of the back taken. The Sheriff of San Bernardino, the two latter with prisoners they were taking to San Quentin. All six were in one end of a half smoking car, the prisoners being handcuffed to each other. All at once O'Brien jumped up, ran to the back of the car and had dropped off before he could be prevented.

He was given to have the train stopped, which was done in about 600 feet. When the officers got back to the place where the prisoner had leaped off, the man was gone, leaving no sign of the railroad or of the train. The train could not wait, so Pickett was left in the middle of the desert to make his search.

Sheriff Collins at noon telephoned to Sheriff Cummings at Fresno, and was told that Pickett had failed to find any trace of the escape. The country is covered with a certain amount of sage and other small growth where the man would soon be lost to sight. The deputy had secured a team at Mojave and started out again to find him.

V. J. Hutchinson, formerly janitor of the courthouse in Fresno, known at Mojave, and Mr. Collins asked him to lend assistance to Pickett. Another telephone message at 3 o'clock in the afternoon stated that Pickett had come in again, and that he had with him a prisoner, but that he was not O'Brien.

Heading Him Off.

The sheriff's office has been busy telegraphing warnings to points in every direction from Mojave so as to head O'Brien off. It was counted that he would try to make a distant point on the railroad and sneak across the board of some train so as to get out of that inhospitable region. The office here was handicapped by the fact that it had no description of O'Brien. A message to Los Angeles got the information that the sheriff's office had there, and a promise that the jail photograph would be forwarded.

A message to Bakersfield was received by the sheriff of Kern county, that he would send a deputy to Tehachapi to look out for the burglar. The Recapture.

An Associated Press dispatch was received yesterday night stating that O'Brien was recaptured at Tehachapi last evening from Bakersfield as follows:

"BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 12.—Word was received at the sheriff's office tonight that John O'Brien, the man who jumped from the Southern Pacific train near Mojave while in the custody of an officer, was captured at Tehachapi. Details of the capture are lacking at this time."

At a late hour last night Sheriff Collins received a brief message from Bakersfield to the effect that the capture had been made at Tehachapi by Constable John Kett of that place. O'Brien was identified by Constable Kett by description. No particulars of the recapture were learned. Tehachapi is about twenty-five miles from Mojave into the mountains.

It is possible that Pickett has heard of the capture of O'Brien in the morning and make the Owl train, which gets into Fresno at 2:40 o'clock this morning, but the sheriff does not expect him to arrive here until 11:55 o'clock.

ELECTRIC ROAD WAS TORN UP

THE LOS ANGELES MAYOR TOOK PROMPT ACTION ON ORDER.

Ten Thousand Patrons of Suburban Line Will Be Inconvenienced By the Work.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 12.—Under the personal supervision of Mayor McLaughlin, and in the presence of 10,000 spectators, a force of city workmen this afternoon cut the trolley wires of the Los Angeles railway company and commenced tearing up the tracks of the company on South Park. The city council, the city authorities followed the decision of Judge York today dissolving the injunction restraining the city from removing the railway tracks which the city claims were placed after the expiration of the franchise had expired. About a mile of the track of this division of the company's line comes under the court's order, and a cutting line of 2.2 miles in length is affected by the decision. The 10,000 people, it is estimated, are patrons of this branch of the road. The company will make no resistance to the city work in cutting the wires, but say that the people residing in the section affected will be more greatly inconvenienced than the company.

City Attorney Matthews and a squad of policemen. City Electrician Mahan personally directed the cutting of the trolley. A hook and ladder company was brought to the scene with its apparatus and the electricians ascended the poles and cut the wires. The trolley was cut at both ends of the section of the street affected by the court's order. Several cars loaded with passengers were of the line which was put out of business by the city's workmen. The passengers were transferred to other lines and the cars allowed to return to the city. The cutting of the wires at each end of the South Park line was completed at 10 o'clock this morning and tonight a force of policemen is guarding the road to prevent the company from repairing the line.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Oct. 12.—John R. Holman, of Portland, Ore., was this evening elected captain of the freshman football team which will meet the University of California freshmen next Saturday. A peculiar thing in connection with this election is that Holman is the third successive man from Portland to captain the Stanford freshman team. The previous two were Fred Fisher and the year before Scott was given the honor. Another coincidence is that all three of these Portland men played the position of quarter-backs.

W. R. HEARST IS IN THE RUNNING

HIS NOMINATION RATIFIED BY MASS MEETING.

Democrats Also Complete Their Ticket —Jerome's Former Assistant Will Oppose Him.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—William Randolph Hearst was nominated for mayor of New York tonight at a convention of the Municipal Ownership League and the Citizens' Union held in Carnegie hall. The convention was a popular one, the public generally being invited. The accommodations of the hall were taxed to their limit and the crowd outside the building was estimated at several thousands.

The convention named former State Senator John Ford for city comptroller and J. Stokes Phelps for president of the board of aldermen.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—James W. Osborne, formerly an assistant district attorney under Assistant District Attorney William Jerome, was tonight nominated for district attorney by the democratic convention in Tammany hall. Osborne accepted and will be one of the opponents of Jerome, who is making an independent campaign for re-election.

For justices of the supreme court, Henry L. Gildersleeve, George L. Ingraham and Joseph E. Newburger.

For sheriff, Nicholas J. Haynes.

TO BUILD RAILROAD TO THE SUMMIT OF MOUNT HAMILTON

SAN JOSE, Oct. 12.—It was announced today that a contract had been made between the Mount Hamilton Exploration company, which has been doing the preliminary work of surveying the route to Mount Hamilton, and some financiers connected with the Bay Cities Water company, by which the latter company bind themselves, after examination and favorable report upon the engineering and business conditions, to build, equip and operate an electric road to the summit of Mount Hamilton in two years.

ATTORNEY COLLINS WILL RETURN TO SAN FRANCISCO

VICTORIA, B. C., Oct. 12.—George D. Collins, in an interview tonight, said his decision to return to San Francisco as soon as possible, waiving the usual term of commitment, follows a warrant of commitment for his extradition, which he delivered for extradition, was taken because he felt that acquittal was not certain if he faced trial for perjury at San Francisco, and because his practice and business in Victoria were being such an extent by his absence that he would lose $70,000 unless he returned. He said he has no less than seventeen cases set for trial at San Francisco, which he represents one of the parties.

INVESTIGATING ALAMEDA WRECK

OFFICIAL INQUIRY IS BEGUN IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Captain Dowdell Disclaims Responsibility—Caring for Passenger's Trunk Partly to Blame.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12.—The investigation into the cause of the wrecking of the steamer Alameda, begun today, after the preliminary made against the swearing of the officers of the vessel and the pilot.

Captain Dowdell was the first witness. He said that as soon as the vessel got under way he turned her over to Pilot Johnson. He told of stopping off Mojos wharf for the trunk of a passenger and of the fog which ran in as the steamer resumed her way. For five minutes after the fog shut her in, he said, the engine continued to run at full speed. Then they slowed down. He denied that he was in command at any time until the lookout shouted his warning that the ship was running ashore. He then ordered the helm thrown overboard a port in the attempt to steer her off the rocks. Before she had time to answer the helm, he said, she struck.

Third Officer Jordan testified that he was on the bridge with the captain and pilot and transmitted the latter's orders to the war at the wheel and saw that the changes in the vessel's course were made as directed. He did so by watching his own compass, he said, but kept no record of the various departures. He heard no fog signals from shore, he said, until after the Alameda struck, when he heard the Fort Point whistle blow.

Previous to that he heard a shrill fog signal from some other boat off the harbor and he said he did not know what it meant.

A large part of the hearing was taken up with routine descriptions of the course and variations for use later on in the investigation.

WAS MISS ROOSEVELT DEFICIENT IN TACT IN THE PHILIPPINES?

SEATTLE, Oct. 12.—L. E. Bennett, former governor of Nevada, Viscaya province, Island of Luzon, arrived yesterday from the Philippine islands.

Governor Bennett was surprised to learn of the accounts in certain newspapers of probable trouble that might follow the graciousness shown by Miss Alice Roosevelt to Aglipay, the so-called schismatic bishop of Manila, who is attempting to build up a Catholic diocese in the Philippines.

It is alleged that much offense was felt at the vacation account of Miss Roosevelt's action, and that Bennett, and that Miss Roosevelt showed excellent social tact in her recognition of both Mr. Aglipay and the Roman archbishop, treating both with equal graciousness.

At no time was there any marked preference shown, and the young woman acted just as should a daughter of a president of the United States, where all creeds and religions are recognized alike. There is no state church in the Philippines under American control. I remained in Manila three weeks after the latter left and I heard no complaint of any act of the visitors.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12.—Walter B. Allen, well-known manufacturer and dealer in pianos, died late last night at his home in this city, as the result of an apoplectic stroke.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—Lady Isabel Wilson, sister of the Duke of Roxburgh (who married Miss May Goelet) died today at Warrington, Yorkshire. Lady Wilson gave birth to a still-born daughter October 9th.

New Deputy Surveyor General. SACRAMENTO, Oct. 12.—W. A. Sanborn of Los Angeles has been appointed deputy surveyor general to take the place of E. P. Hilborn, resigned.

LOS ANGELES MAY NOW PROCEED TO TEAR UP TRACKS.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 12.—Assistant City Attorney Herbert Goudge today obtained a final decree from Judge York in the Superior court, which dissolves the injunction obtained by the Los Angeles railway company more than a year ago, restraining the city from tearing up the street car tracks on South Park avenue from Thirtieth street to the city limits. The decree denies the railway company any relief by its suit against the city.

As a result of Judge York's ruling a force of men was sent out by Street Superintendent Hanley to begin the work of tearing up the tracks. The greater part of the South Park line, which is more than two and a half miles in length, was built by the street car company after the limit for its completion, according to the franchise, had expired. Only about a mile and a quarter had been completed.

Former Street Superintendent Wendt started to tear up the track, but was restrained by an order from the Superior court, by which that restraining order that was dissolved by the decree by Judge York today.

DEWEY FAVORS YOUNG OFFICERS

NAVY IN DANGER IF OLD MEN ARE COMMANDING.

Lessons of the Civil War Should Teach Us the Wisdom of Early Change.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The Post tomorrow will print an interview with Admiral George Dewey in which he declares that the officers of the American navy above the rank of lieutenant as a rule are too old for the grades they occupy. The admiral continues: "The navy will necessarily meet with disaster in a naval war unless young men are given command of the ships of our navy."

"Continuing the older men in command of the ships of the navy would be a certain menace to the country. In the event of war we would see, in all probability, a repetition of the deplorable events which occurred in the first years of the Civil war. Old men, for the most part, were in command of the federal ships when hostilities between the North and South broke out. The officers then were older, by the way, than those who are now commanding in our navy."

"You remember that disaster followed disaster and it was not until younger men were placed in command of our fighting vessels that victories succeeded over us. And the chief cause of the disasters of war on the water did not come until congress had passed the act which placed naval officers who had reached the age of 62 years on the retired list."

"In the recent war in the Far East all the officers in the Japanese navy, from the admiral down, were in the prime of life."

"I mean to criticize the officers now in command or who have commanded our war vessels so splendidly. But I know from experience that in the stress of war we must have young men to direct the fighting aboard the ships. You see," added the admiral, "I can say all this because I am old myself."

GENERAL OTIS WON HIS CONTEMPT SUIT IN SUPREME COURT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12.—The Supreme court today handed down an important decision in the case of B. H. Otis against the city of San Francisco, and Judge A. J. Fritz, in supporting the contention of Robert, the Supreme court states that the police courts have no jurisdiction to try any misdemeanor which is made a misdemeanor by the political code of the state. Its only right to try misdemeanors is the right to try those made such by a municipal ordinance.

General Hastings Gray, editor of the Los Angeles Times, won his action against the Superior court of the county of Los Angeles before the Supreme court today. Otis and General Hastings Gray, who were indicted for contempt of the Los Angeles grand jury because of certain articles appearing in the Times. The Supreme court held that while every citizen has the right to publish and circulate what was contempt before it, and there was contempt, yet the affidavits failed to connect Otis and Chandler with the offense.

HIGHWAY ROBBER PLEADS AS EXCUSE HIS WIFE'S SUPPORT

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12.—Charles C. Hatfield, who last evening surrendered himself to the police as the man wanted for robbing Louis Compant in Golden Gate park, remains in custody pending an examination. He says that he is a man living at his trade of workman, he took to "holding up" people in order to support his wife, who was formerly Miss Claire Staley of Reno, Nevada. Then they separated. She visited him in prison last night, but on leaving said that under existing circumstances reconciliation was impossible.

BENNINGTON'S BOILERS CARRIED STEAM PRESSURE BEYOND SAFETY LIMIT

MARE ISLAND, Oct. 12.—This morning's session of the Young court martial was devoted entirely to the examination of Commander Bartlett, who gave many technical details concerning the condition of the Bennington's boilers in answer to a hypothetical question by the judge advocate, who desired the witness to express an opinion relative to the steam pressure in the burst boiler at the time the explosion occurred, the witness said that with the given conditions, he did not think steam could have been kept down to less than 145 pounds.

Guilty of Wife Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12.—In Judge Cook's court today Michael J. McCarthy pleaded guilty of the murder of his wife in this city on September 19 of last year. The case went over until tomorrow when his attorney will submit an argument as to the degree of crime and ask the mercy of the court.

Mikado Rewarded Bravery.

SEATTLE, Oct. 12.—Japanese Consul S. Hisamitsu today presented a medal for bravery to Captain Conrad R. Larsen of the American bark Eclipse. The presentation was made on behalf of the Japanese emperor for saving the lives of two survivors of a fishing ship, lost off the Japanese coast a year ago.

New Deputy Surveyor General.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 12.—W. A. Sanborn of Los Angeles has been appointed deputy surveyor general to take the place of E. P. Hilborn, resigned.

NEW YORKERS ARE LEADING BY ONE

THIRD GAME IN THE WORLD'S BALL CHAMPIONSHIP.

National League Leaders Scored Nine Runs and Matthewson Shut Americans Out.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 12.—It was all New York today in the third game for the baseball championship of the world between the National league champions and the American league pennant winners, the visitors scoring nine runs while the home team failed to tally. The series now stands two to one in favor of New York.

Matthewson pitched another magnificent game, the Philadelphia hitting him for only four singles—the same number of hits they made off of him Monday. Only one home player reached second base.

The day was cold and raw for baseball. The attendance was officially announced at 10,001 the receipts $8348, and the players' share $4507. The total attendance of the three games is $33,938 and the total receipts $40,072.

The teams will play in New York tomorrow and Saturday. Plank and Powers will be the Philadelphia battery tomorrow. Score: N. H. E. New York ..... 9 8 1 Philadelphia ..... 0 4 4

Batteries—Matthewson and Powers; Plank; Cookley, Schreck and Powers. Two base hit—McGann. Base on balls—Off Matthewson 1, off Cookley 5. Struck out by Matthewson 8, by Cookley 2. Umpires—Sheridan and O'Day.

Boston Americans Lead.

At Boston.—The local American league team, by winning today's game have only to win one game out of the latter three to take the series. The National team was completely outclassed today. Score: B. H. E. American ..... 12 14 0 Nationals ..... 6 5 4

Batteries—Winter and Criger; Fraser and Moran. Umpire—Emmie and O'Loughlin. Attendance 4000.

Chicago Americans Too.

At Chicago.—The Chicago American baseball team defeated the Nationals today in the second game of the series for the championship of Chicago. Reulbach of the nationals was hit hard and was replaced in the second inning by Brown. Donohue of the Americans made a home run with two men on bases. The Americans outbatted them. Attendance 11,500. Score: B. H. E. American ..... 7 8 3 Nationals ..... 1 3 1

Tie at St. Louis. At St. Louis.—The local National and American league teams battled ten innings to a tie today, the game being called on account of darkness. Attendance 2300. Score: B. H. E. National ..... 1 3 1 American ..... 1 6 3

Goat League.

At Las Vegas.—Darkness terminated a ten inning game today between Tacoma and Los Angeles with the score standing six to six. The game was interesting and even sensational at periods, replete with hard hitting and clean fielding, with first one team and then the other leading in the score. Dillon's batting was the feature of the game, the Los Angeles captain getting three singles and a triple out of five times up. Flood's hitting also was timely, his two 2-bag hits resulting in scores. Each team made four runs in the eighth inning. In the ninth Baum replaced Nagle in the box and allowed the visitors but one hit in the two innings following. Emerson's pitching was effective at times and he struck out nine men. Score: B. H. E. Tacoma ..... 6 9 1 Los Angeles ..... 6 14 1

Batteries—Nagle, Baum and Eager; Emerson and Hogan. Umpire—Perine.

At San Francisco.—In the last of the ninth inning Jones lost control and in succession sent three men to first on balls. Then C. Hall displaced Jones but the substitute was just as unsteady and gave the next four batters free passes. This forced in four runs and ended the game. Score: B. H. E. Seattle ..... 3 10 2 San Francisco ..... 4 9 1

Batteries—Hill and Jones; C. Hall and Earl. Umpire—Davis.

GOVERNOR WRIGHT HAS RESIGNED AS GOVERNOR OF PHILIPPINE ISLANDS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—By reason of what appeared to be dissatisfaction with the situation in the Philippines, Luke E. Wright, governor-general of the Philippines and president of the Philippine commission, will retire from that position about the first of December. General Wright is expected to arrive in the United States during that month and is entitled to six months' leave of absence prior to the formal relinquishment of his duties as governor-general. It is understood that he expects to return to Memphis, Tennessee, to resume the practice of law.

President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft it is believed have decided upon the successor of General Wright, but no intimation has been permitted to become public as to his identity. It can be stated reasonably definitely that General Wright's successor will not be a man now connected with the commission.

YANCEY HAD BAD FALL.

Found Half Conscious on Southern Pacific Tracks.
Passersby about 7 o'clock last evening found an unconscious man lying on the Southern Pacific track within a few feet of where it is crossed by Cherry avenue, at the southern limit of the city. Dr. G. L. Long was summoned, and found that there was no bones broken. After the injured man had sufficiently recovered, the physician had him removed to the county hospital.

The man, who is apparently about 28 years of age, gave his name as Yancey, and says that his home is in Selma, where his mother lives. He had been away from there for several months, and yesterday came into town from Bolinas, with about $2. When found, he had 50 cents. He had drunk some, and when the physician arrived was in a semi-conscious condition, partly from the effect of a fall. His right leg was badly bruised, and he would apparently complain of his leg, talk about having been thrown from the train, and then wander off into some war experiences.

It is thought that the man started to beat his way home on the 6:30 train and fell off at the crossing.

ARRIVAL OF EVANGELIST.

Big Tent Will Go Up Today on P Street.
Evangelist Babin, expected to arrive in Fresno this noon or not later than tomorrow morning, in preparation for the evangelistic services he is to begin next Sunday.

The tent, to accommodate 3000 people will go up today on the vacant lot on P and Mariposa streets. The first service will be held Sunday afternoon.

During the continuation of the service, the following churches will merge their Sunday evening meetings with those of the evangelist: First Methodist, First Baptist, First Presbyterian, Cumberland Presbyterian, and Presbyterian.

Next Thursday night there will be a meeting of all the girls in the association to discuss general plans for mutual benefit.

Outing and Study Club.
The Outing and Study club of the Y. W. C. A. assembled last night in the association rooms to organize new classes and talk over plans for the year's work. The gymnasium class have not as yet been able to make a satisfactory arrangement about their work, but hoped to be able to find a place and begin work soon. Reports were heard from the current events, choral and book classes and also from the sewing department, known as the shirtwaist class. Some of the club have organized an improvement class in gardening purposes and hope to do some successful work in this line. Miss Jessie Wilson is the guiding spirit of this Outing and Study club, which hopes to accomplish a great deal during the coming year.

Next Thursday night there will be a meeting of all the girls in the association to discuss general plans for mutual benefit.

VICTIM OF PERJURY

SO SAYS MAN EXCULPATED BY WOODS.

Officers and Attorneys Favor Pardon for Thomas Washoe Kelley—Prisoner Makes Statement.

W. D. Tupper, who prosecuted Thomas Washoe Kelley, states that in view of Kelley's confession exonerating him, he will ask the governor to pardon Kelley. Charles Montgomery, president of the California Prison commission, believes Kelley innocent and so does Undersecretary Hensley who was sheriff of this county at the time of the murder. In an interview, published in yesterday's San Francisco Chronicle, Kelley says:

"I am the victim of the perjured evidence of a barkeeper named Mitchell, employed at that time in the Circle Bar saloon in Fresno, and the authorities who wanted to fasten the crime of some one. If they had acted according to justice they would have aided me, instead of refusing to detain my companions of that evening as witnesses and keeping me confined a few days, preventing me from any communication with the outside. I am a native of England, 38 years of age.

"I state a year prior to the killing of Kinney and have made a living grape-picking and at other similar work. I have never had any trouble of any kind and the Fresno Chronicle first jail I ever was in. In company with several grape pickers from Bakersfield I went to Fresno during fair week, expecting to secure work as a sheep herder. We went around the different ranches and during the morning of the murder I met Kinney for the first time. I was at the Circle Bar. There were about thirty there. We had a couple of drinks and left. There was trouble in the back yard, and went to Babin's saloon. We were there ten minutes when we heard that Kinney was killed.

"The next morning when I heard that I was the sheriff's office and told him that I declared myself innocent. I asked him to detain my companions of that evening as witnesses and keep me confined a few days, preventing me from any communication with the outside. I am a native of England, 38 years of age.

PRICES CURRENT.

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—The wheat market opened easy with December option unchanged to 1/2c lower at 80 1/2c@80 3/4c. Almost the sole factor of bearish tenor was the absence of rain in the Northwest. With bright skies in that section the movement of the new crop which, on account of wet weather, had fallen off considerably, is expected to again assume large proportions. Rumors of drought in Australia were said to have caused strength in the English market. Pit traders were quite free sellers here throughout the entire day. During the first hour a prominent commission house made offerings on a decidedly lower scale. Under the combined pressure the price of December declined to 84 1/2c. On covering by shorts, however, the market later regained temporarily all of the loss.

The action of shorts was largely the result of advice telling of active demand for cash wheat, both Northwest and Southwest. The foreign situation, too, seemed to attract considerable attention at this stage of the trading. The rally carried the price of December up to 86 1/2c@86 3/4c. Prices, however, soon reacted again, the close being easy, with December at 86 1/2c@86 3/4c, a loss of 1/4c.

Sentiment in the corn pit was bearish, mainly as a result of dry, frosty weather throughout the Middle West. The market closed fairly steady, December 1/2c lower at 47 1/2c.

Oats held comparatively firm. December closed unchanged at 28 1/2c@28 3/4c. Provisions were firm in sympathy with the action of the price of live hogs. Trading was quite active. At the close January pork was unchanged at 81 1/2c@81 3/4c; lard was up a shade and ribs were unchanged.

New York Dried Fruit.
New York.—The market for evaporated apples is unchanged. Prime fruit for December delivery is quoted at 7 1/2c, common to good are quoted at 6 1/2c to 7c. Apples are quiet, with quotations ranging from 4 1/2 to 7 1/4c, according to grade.

Apples continue firm in tone with choice quoted at 8 1/2c@9c; extra choice, at 9 1/2c@9 1/4c, and fancy, at 10 1/2c@11c. Peaches are quiet and in very light supply on spot, the market being quiet of nominal in absence of important transactions.

Raisins are attracting attention. Raisins are quiet, with quotations ranging from 1 1/2c@1 3/4c, according to grade.

San Francisco Grain.
San Francisco.—Wheat: weaker; December, $1.38 1/4. Barley, weaker; December, $1.11 1/4. Corn, large, yellow, $1.40 1/2. Bran, $22.50@22.75.

ANOTHER GOOD DAY

AT THE KINGS COUNTY AGRICULTURAL FAIR.

Total Attendance For the Week is 7300
—Yesterday's Races—General
News Notes.

HANFORD, October 12.—Today was Tulare county day at the Central California fair and it was marked by the characteristic good attendance of the previous day. The forenoon was spent chiefly in judging the horses, the auction sale of thoroughbred stock having been postponed until tomorrow forenoon. The stock parade, which will be an interesting event, will take place at 9 o'clock tomorrow, which is set apart as Fresno day.

The pavilion continues to entertain the crowds. There is something of interest to be seen at each booth. At many of them, the visitors are treated to samples of dainty pure foods. The concert and vaudeville show at the pavilion last evening was enjoyed, as it should have been, for it is a good, clean entertainment.

The total attendance for the week up to 3 o'clock today is estimated at 7300. The grand stand was packed when the races began this afternoon. The first was a consolation 1/2 mile dash, purse $800, for horses that have not yet made a winning. This race was easily won by Larry Brown, Jr., 9:14; Myrtle H. third; Gladis Nugget also ran.

Second race: Special 2:40 trot, mile heats, 3 in 5, purse $200. The first heat was won by Billy H. in 2:37; Milton Gear, second, and Miss Gordon, third. She galloped half of the distance.

The third race was a 2:30 pace, mile heats, 3 in 5, purse $200. The first heat was won by Rhody Fay in 2:22 1/2. Sweetheart finishing second, Fernot third.

The second heat of the 2:40 trot was won by Billy H. in 2:41 1/2. Milton Gear second, Miss Gordon repeatedly breaking and coming in third.

The second heat of the 2:30 pace was won by Rhody Fay in 2:19 1/2. Fernot second, Sweetheart third. Stewart, the owner and driver of Fernot, was accused of not trying to win in this heat, but after a proper explanation he was allowed to stay in the race.

Billy H. took the third heat in the 2:40 trot, time 2:45, making three straight heats and giving him the race. Milton Gear finished second and Miss Gordon third.

The third heat of the 2:30 pace was won by Rhody Fay in 2:22 1/2, giving her the race and first money. Sweetheart second. The driver of Fernot (Stewart) had a breakdown with his sulky and was out of the race.

The three mile automobile race which was to have taken place between H. R. Gosh, Wm. Worswick and W. C. McFarlane's machines was postponed owing to a break in the McFarlane machine.

There will be no school tomorrow and it was announced from the judges' stand that children under 12 years of age will be admitted free on Friday.

The athletic club of the H. I. L. S. elected Professor E. H. Walker and Stanley Welsbach as delegates to the Central California Amateur Athletic League, which will be held in Visalia next Saturday.

During this meeting a schedule of football games will be arranged and the time and place for holding the annual field and track meet will be selected.

Mr. and Mrs. George Armstrong left this morning for San Francisco, where they will visit the former's mother.

William S. Smith, who has been the guest of his parents, Major and Mrs. A. W. Smith of this city, left this afternoon for his home in Chicago.

Dr. J. A. Moore left this morning for San Francisco where he will meet his sister Mrs. Sue Weir, of Hooper, Kansas. The latter will spend the winter in this city.

The jury in the case of Steve Bias, who is being tried for perjury, after being locked up all night, disagreed eight members being for conviction and four for acquittal. The time for the second trial has been set for November 2nd.

MADERA MATTERS.

Jury Disagreed in Case of Woman Charged With Theft.

MADERA, Oct. 12.—Constable Tom Leonard came down from Raymond yesterday having in charge H. M. Parr, who was arraigned at Fresno Plains on charges of grand larceny and robbery. His hearing has been set for the 27th inst. and bail fixed at $300 in each case.

The trial of Mrs. Brown on a charge of larceny, for stealing, as the complaint alleges, three sacks of barley from John Parker, occurred at the attention of a jury in Judge Barrett's court all day yesterday when the jury disagreed standing nine for acquittal.

Joe Malone interrupted court during the progress of the Brown case yesterday afternoon and was sent to jail for twenty-four hours by Judge Barrett.

Samuel A. Sharp, a native of California, aged 42 years, was today licensed to wed Catherine May Ferguson, a native of Michigan, 38. He is a resident of Fresno and she of Hollister.

T. R. Ryan and wife returned last night from a trip across the mountains. Dr. A. H. Ryars returned today from a trip to Mittern.

Mrs. Husey and daughters, Annie and Teresa, returned yesterday morning from a visit to Fresno.

J. R. White was in the county seat yesterday.

Miss Corn Miner returned yesterday from Fresno.

F. W. Krogh is up from Tulare. W. H. Cardwell returned last night from Stockton.

Mrs. Walsh and daughter, Miss Mollie, of San Jose, are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. Roberts and family.

Cal Hoffman, who has been visiting in Oregon, Washington and in Northern California for some months, returned last night.

J. M. Hamilton, who was operated on at the Burnett sanitarium a few days ago for a growth on the eyes returned from Fresno yesterday. He is getting along well, although he is not able to see yet.

Mrs. Sibley and son Charlie left today for Fresno, where they will reside. Mrs. W. Suma went to Fresno today.

WANTED FOR ARSON

GEORGE LUTE IN FRESNO JAIL, IS FIRE FIEND.

Visalia Officers Want His Release from Jail to Try Him for Fire Setting.

VISALIA, Oct. 12.—An effort will be made at Fresno tomorrow to secure the release of George Lute, serving a six months' sentence for defrauding a liveryman at Selma, by habeas corpus proceedings. Lute is suspected of having set fire to the Hufaker barn in Visalia and sufficient evidence is at hand, it is believed, to convict him. In the plea for the granting of the writ the constitutionality of the statute relating to the hiring of livery teams will be attacked. If Lute's release is secured he will be brought back to Visalia for trial.

At the meeting of the Board of City Trustees last night in special session to discuss the sewer matter, the office of city engineer was declared vacant. No reason was assigned other than that the views of Engineer McCabe and of the board in reference to the sewer and other matters are widely at variance.

Pun Sing, an American-born Chinese, wants to be a soldier boy and has made application to become a member of Company E, N. G. C. of this city. Pun belongs to the reform association, has cropped his hair, and parts it in the middle, according to the latest fashion. He talks good English and his manners and habits are fashioned after those of his American brethren. It is understood that a number of members of the company favor Sing and will vote for his election. The matter will be decided at the meeting next Tuesday evening.

Great preparations are being made at Tulare for the fair to be held there next week. Much of the stock and agricultural products exhibited at Hanford will be taken to Tulare, together with the majority of the racing and trotting horses. The track is very fast at Tulare and fast time is expected.

Mrs. Alice Tucker arrived yesterday evening from Kankakee, Iowa, and will spend the winter with her daughter, Miss Hazel Tucker, teacher of the Goshen school.

County Treasurer and Mrs. Henry Newman and George Earnhart returned this morning from San Diego, where they have been attending the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows.

BARTON ATTRACTIONS.

Ethel Barrymore in "Sunday" Tonight—Other Plays.

Miss Ethel Barrymore, who will be seen at the Barton tonight with the same powerful company that supported her during the long run at the Hudson theater, New York, will appear in her notable success, the picturesque West-en play, "Sunday." Although Miss Barrymore has many triumphs to her credit since she began her stellar career, there is no role in which she has appeared that ever gave her such excellent opportunities as "Sunday." When it is remembered that she has created the heroine of "Captain Jinks," the ingenious young creature who is the central figure in "A Country Boy," the pathetic little peasant boy of "Aggravation," and the charming "Cousin Kate," it is saying a great deal to declare "Sunday" a more attractive role than any of these, and a creation in which a finer and more complete revelation of all the exquisite artistic qualities of this favorite are combined. Yet such has been the general verdict.

Ethel Barrymore in "Sunday."

In "Sunday" Miss Barrymore not only gives a delightful embodiment of the American girlhood and depicts with the grace, sweetness and distinction which she always imparts to a role, a Western type that at once wins the way to the heart, but she also employs the more powerful qualities of her art and in the serious phases of the play shines with conspicuous emotional strength.

"It is a great part for her, and she plays it magnificently, being as successful in the dramatic portions of it as she is clever on the comedy side. Her triumph in the play has been complete.

"Sweet Clover" Tomorrow Night.

Completeness in detail is one of the claims of the management for the production of "Sweet Clover," that delicious, dainty and delightful comedy, so thoroughly enjoyed at its performance here last season. It is to be seen at the Barton tomorrow night, with Otis R. Thayer, Gertrude Bondhill and an excellent company. Seats are on sale all day, prices 25, 50, 75 cents and $1.

The Fight on Canvas.

Next Monday and Tuesday nights and Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the great Brit-Nelson fight pictures will be the attraction at the Barton. The pictures were taken under the most favorable conditions and are a wonderful reproduction of every incident and blow from beginning to end of the most stupendous contest of modern times. The pictures are under the direction of J. W. Coffroth and is positively the only performance of its kind. Prices will be as follows: Entire lower floor, 50 cents; balcony, first three rows, 50 cents; remaining rows, 35 cents; gallery 25 cents. Seats are now on sale.

The Equitable Securities Co. of Los Angeles, will loan you money on city property. See Pearson's Exchange, the local agents; next to P. O.

THE SELMA BUSKIES

FOOTBALL TEAM REORGANIZED FOR THE WINTER.

A Strong Effort to Be Made to Win Back the Lost Honors of Last Year.

SELMA, Oct. 12.—Selma football players met last evening for the purpose of organizing a team to win the Northern California championship this season. The meeting was held at the L. J. Price cyclery and much enthusiasm was shown over the proposition of organizing a stronger team than ever this season. Selma boys have won laurels so many times upon the gridiron that the team will make a splendid effort to get into shape to win from all comers this season. Fresno defeated Selma last season and the boys will not be content until given an opportunity to wipe off this score with a decisive victory. Fred Scott has been secured as coach.

Many of the old players were on hand last evening and it is understood that some new material is available which may be used to strengthen the team. H. Lewald was elected manager and C. A. Harrison secretary-treasurer. The team will meet again on Saturday evening and elect captain and choose the old players who have agreed to play are L. J. Price, Harry Staley, C. Tucker, C. Drew, W. Staley, M. Christensen, J. Christensen, George Sweeney, S. Evans and Elmer Cochrane. The last-named is expected home from Boston about November 1st. Clarence Balough, another old-time player, is being urged to play in the position of quarterback.

The honey producers have had a fine season and like all other producers in this section report much better conditions than those enjoyed in other localities. Whereas the honey crop was light in most localities of the valley this year, in this section some phenomenal yields were recorded. The total output of honey shipped from this point will amount to about 4000 cases, each case containing 120 pounds.

Principal C. T. Elliott in his report for the Grammar school for the month of September, shows an average daily attendance of 393. This is an increase of twenty-two over the same month last year. Pupils enrolled 425.

M. Vincent returned this afternoon from San Francisco where he went as a delegate to the Masonic grand lodge.

Will Watkins and family left yesterday for a visit to their old home in Mississippi. They will stop en route at San Francisco, Salt Lake, Denver and St. Louis.

Rev. S. L. McConnell, the new pastor of the Whitson Street M. E. church, arrived in Selma yesterday from Los Angeles, and his wife came in last evening from Nevada county. Rev. McConnell is from the North Ohio conference.

The camp meeting of the San Joaquin Valley Pentecostal Association will open tomorrow evening at a tent on the corner of Second and Silva streets.

Rev. J. M. Taylor came up from Fullerton yesterday to attend the meeting.

Rev. A. L. Paul of Madera has been appointed as pastor of the M. E. church (South) to succeed Rev. Phillips, who will engage in farming near Modesto, owing to his failing health.

John and Tom Boho left yesterday for Patterson mountain to engage in a bear hunt.

Rev. C. L. Thackeray has been appointed Rector of the Episcopal church at Watsonville and will leave Selma the latter part of this month.

Mrs. Bradford Webster and daughter are here from Oakland on a visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Pelton.

WHOLESALE STATIONERS. URGE THE TRADE TO SHUN INDECENT POSTALS.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 12.—The committee on miscellaneous business of the National Association of Stationers and Manufacturers presented a report to the convention urging that the members of the association refuse to display for sale illustrated post cards that tend to be vulgar, suggestive, and indecent and urging retailers and buyers of post cards to carefully draw the line between vulgarity and art. The report also calls the attention of the association to the matter of tariff revision, setting forth that the tariff is a matter which directly affects every business man in the country and we should watch with care its revision, especially the revision of such schedules as interest our business.

STATE OFFICIALS ARE UPHELD IN LETTING TEXT BOOK CONTRACT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12.—Judge Seawell today denied the injunction sought by the paper house of Bonestall, Richardson & Co. against Secretary of State Curry, Deputy Attorney General Post and State Printer Shannon, to restrain them from letting the contract for furnishing paper for the state text books to A. Zollerback & Sons. The complaint asserted that the defendants had been allowed to bid on an inferior quality of paper, and the defense asserted that as the contract had been entered into there could be no restraining order. The judge held that as the plaintiffs did not claim that the required statutory provisions had not been carried out, it is supposed they were, and the award of the contract, therefore, was just.

Facts.

PREFERRED DEATH RATHER THAN JAIL

PROMINENT NEW YORK LAWYER
JUMPED FROM WINDOW.

He Was To Have Faced Trial Yesterday on Charge of Looting an Estate.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Rather than face trial on the indictment charging him with fraudulently taking money from the Weissel estate Armitage Matthews, lawyer and secretary of the county Republican committee, committed suicide by jumping from a window in his apartment to a stone pavement in the court yard. He struck on his head, fracturing his skull and died in a short time.

Matthews, who was a young man, had advanced rapidly, both in the practice of his profession and in politics. He was a friend of former Governor Black and of Abraham Gruber and they were loyal to him in his trouble, acting as legal advisers and doing all they could to aid him to obtain the change of venue from this county for which he applied. The change of venue was denied yesterday and trial of the case was set for today before Justice Day in the Criminal branch of the Supreme court.

Early this morning Matthews received a special delivery letter. After reading it his housekeeper heard him go to another room and open a window. A few seconds later he jumped to his death. Matthews was indicted last May on charges of conspiracy and grand larceny, growing out of the looting of the Weissel estate, of which David Rothschild, wrecker of the Federal bank, was administrator.

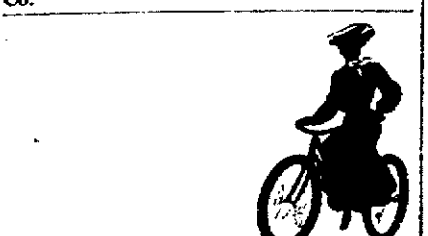

Rothschild, John W. Wooten and Lawyer Samuel L. Ferguson were all indicted with Matthews on the same charges. Rothschild is now serving a long term in state's prison for wrecking the Federal bank, and Wooten was convicted in June and sentenced to nine years and five months in Sing Sing.

Matthews was the local representative of the Bankers' Surety company of Cleveland, which was on Rothschild's bond for $400,000 as administrator of the Weissel estate. It was agreed by the four accused men, according to the indictment, that Rothschild was to have sole possession of the estate and that whatever money he borrowed on it was to be shared by his associates.

CHINESE TROOPS ARE TO HOLD MANEUVERS FOR THE FIRST TIME.

PEKIN, Oct. 2.—Much curiosity is felt regarding the forthcoming Chinese military maneuvers. These will be conducted in the neighborhood of Paoingfu, and will continue from October 23 to October 26. They will be held on entirely modern lines, and upwards of 40,000 men of all arms will be in line. These maneuvers will be the first of the kind ever held in China. Yuan Shai Kai, the commander in chief of the Chinese army, has issued a proclamation, urging the troops to do their best and avoid making themselves a laughing stock in the eyes of foreigners.

FAVORS THE PLANS

DR. FOSTER SAYS FRESNO SHOULD PASS SEWER BONDS.

In Discussion Last Night He Declared That Hoxie's Plans Should be Successful.

The plans for sewer disposal prepared by City Engineer George L. Hoxie, and which will be presented to the people of this city for approval in the bond election on October 31st, were examined last night by Dr. F. N. Foster, secretary of the State Board of Health, and by him pronounced to be excellent.

"I want to congratulate the city," said he, "on getting such good plans. I was greatly surprised. If I followed out I cannot see how you will be otherwise than successful in solving the sewer problem with which you are faced."

These were some of the words spoken by Dr. Foster last night at the city hall in the presence of about fifteen city officials and citizens. Before his address he examined the plans drawn by Hoxie, who explained to him the details of the proposed system.

Mayor Lyon asked Dr. Foster to take the floor. "When I came down here two years ago," said the doctor, "I was convinced that Fresno was violating the state law and I was ready to begin proceedings against the city. Now I am in accord with you in the movement you have undertaken."

"You are a thriving people and you want a system that will be an annoyance to no one and at a minimum cost. I can look at it only from the sanitary point of view."

"In the last three years I have induced several cities and two state institutions to put in proper sewage disposal plants. I feel that I understand your position here."

"In Massachusetts there is one system in that of land filtration. At Framingham they fill one or two acres a day, constantly changing. The farthest anyone could smell anything was 500 feet? Why? Because the sewage filters through the sand and the odors are killed by bacterial action. You have been putting the water on the same ground day after day and it naturally smells. The small is all gone. There are places in California where the raw material is found. Large cities of Europe have farmed sewage and it is shown conclusively that it can be successfully farmed."

Septic Tank.
"But the system most used in America is the septic tank. The sewage flows into a tank and there it is held for a week or more. The bacteria work under that mat and destroy the foul smelling substances. Four to twelve hours will destroy a large share of the offensive organic matter. While I wouldn't advise anyone to drink the water, yet the water is clear and cattle drink it. It is perfectly safe for irrigation. The small is all gone. There is a place in Massachusetts where they drink the water after it is filtered through the earth."

"All crops not eaten raw can be irrigated with perfect safety. Just for safety's sake, I'd say, not to plant radishes or strawberries or such crops."

"Have your tank large enough to hold sewage from six to ten hours. Have your farm so that water does not pool. Keep it going from plat to plat. Your plans here are such that you can act with ease. You have 1000 acres which is more than you really need, but it is best to have it all."

"I have studied your plans and it seems to me that you have extremely good plans. If you run the water through the tank and distribute it, you will have no trouble."

"One word of caution—don't expect the tank to work too well the first month. The bacteria must have time to grow. They will grow by millions and in a little time a heavy mat will be formed over the surface. Beneath the work the action will take place."

Ready for Questions.
Here Dr. Foster paused and asked for questions.

Mayor Lyon asked, "What is the reason we can't dump the raw sewage into the river?"

"There's against the state law and I'd prosecute you," said Dr. Foster. "That is what I wanted to bring out," said the mayor.

Would be Beaten.
"The people in the West Park district are talking of getting out an injunction against us," said the mayor.

"The people would be badly beaten if they did because it can be easily proven that you are on the right track, now," said Dr. Foster.

"I want you to go out and settle this matter. If you go over the ground you can give that assurance, can't you?" asked Lyon.

"Yes," said Dr. Foster. A trip to the proposed site will be taken by the mayor and Dr. Foster this morning.

City Engineer's Control.
"Don't you think it best to put the matter in the hands of the city engineer and let him care for it until it gets in working condition," asked City Engineer Hoxie.

"Certainly I do," replied Dr. Foster.

Burleigh's Method.
"There is a man named Burleigh who has all the land out there. He was paid to care for the sewer output. Now, if he had properly farmed the sewage would it have been a nuisance?" asked Lyon.

"Probably not," was the answer. "I don't see why there should be any opposition from people in the district about the tank and farm," said Dr. Foster.

"I want to congratulate the city on getting such good plans. I was greatly surprised. They have every modern idea along sewage disposal lines embodied in them and I can't see how it followed out you will be otherwise than successful."

Open Manholes.
"Is it necessary for manholes along the line of the outfall sewer to be open?" asked J. D. Morgan. "We are bothered by these open manholes."

"There is no reason why they should be open," said Dr. Foster. "Will you see that all the openings along the line are closed, Mr. Hoxie?" asked the mayor.

"Yes," said Hoxie.

Danger of Epidemic.
"There are places in the southern parts of the city," said Hoxie, "where the sewage runs out on the ground. Is not that dangerous to the health of the city?"

"I should say so. You are liable to have a severe epidemic as a result. You will catch it some time, mark my word," was the answer.

"I think it will be a great mistake if you fail to pass your bonds," said the doctor during the discussion.

Mayor Lyon said that Hanford people have a tank that works.

"The water runs into a slough and does not smell," said Hoxie. "I caught in the slough. Someone dynamited and killed a lot of the fish. The fish smelled so bad that the people had to go down and shovel them out and bury them in order to get back to the ordinary work."

"I think anyone seeing the Hanford tank would at once conclude to vote for the bonds," said Trustee Shaw.

"Doctor, would the water running from such a tank as planned here be objected to if it run into the San Joaquin river?" asked Morgan.

"No, I think not," said the doctor. "I have such faith in the tank that I'd just as soon have my ranch next to it."

The meeting then adjourned. At adjournment Mayor Lyon showed Dr. Foster how the sewage rises in the southern part of town. Among the places visited was a school building. Dr. Foster said the conditions were frightful, and Fresno might count upon a severe epidemic if conditions are not remedied.

DELIGHTFUL CONCERT.

Walter Olney, Miss Millward and Mrs. Froh Gave Fine Program.

The Cumberland Presbyterian church was the scene of a delightful entertainment last night, the first of a series which the church expects to give during the winter to aid in paying off the church debt. The large audience which filled the auditorium last night, besides very materially adding a large amount to the treasury, enjoyed the best of musical and literary numbers. The program was in the hands of Walter Hastings Olney, who contributed the greater part of the music. Mr. Olney was in the best of voice and was accorded a warm reception. It is a matter of regret in musical circles and among Mr. Olney's personal friends that the gifted young singer is leaving Fresno; however, all hope that his return, though through the East, may bring him back to his friends with added laurels. The program last night included ambitious numbers but Mr. Olney was equal to them and received an abundance of well deserved applause. His opening number, "Blow, Blow, Blow, Thine Winter Wind," by Sargent, was splendidly done and demanded an encore for which was given "The Message," by Cecil Cacerly, a charming little number most artistically rendered. The Pagliacci number was a difficult one admirably done. "The Two Grenadiers," by Schumann, was one of the best numbers given, and was equalled only by the singer's interpretation of the Persian Garden selection.

Miss Ina Isabelle Millward, who assisted, was as popular as ever with the audience and particularly pleased in the Mary E. Wilkins' reading, "An Object of Love." Miss Millward possesses much charm of voice and manner and is so thoroughly at home on the platform that she never fails to please immensely.

Mrs. Charles Froh contributed to the program several excellent piano solos. Mrs. Froh is a recent addition to Fresno musical circles, having come the summer as a bride. Mr. Froh is the organist and choir director of the church. Mrs. Froh is unusually talented and her playing added greatly to last night's program. Her technique is finished and her touch delightful. The Schubert Impromptu was lovely and the other number, a Moskowski waltz, was gracefully done with most musical interpretation. Mr. Olney closed the program with a sacred number "Golgatha," by Consensus, a trying number admirably done. Mr. Myers, as accompanist, added to the success of the evening.

TWO OF MONG'S MURDERERS.

Pistol Men Are Now in Hands of Fresno Police.

Two of the murderers of Lonnie Mong have been arrested by the efforts of the Fresno police and it is probable that a short time will see the whole bunch locked up and awaiting trial. Wong Duck is held at the county jail, and Constable Dumas went to San Francisco last evening to get Yee Foo, who had been taken the day before by the San Francisco police on a description forwarded by Chief of Police White of this city.

It has been definitely known for several days that the Santa Fe Chinese agent was shot down in the G-street lodging house by a gang of five men, some of them local and some visitors from San Francisco. Three of the highlanders shot him in his room, while the other two held guard at the entrance to the hallway. Accurate descriptions of the three men who fled from the building with smoking pistols were obtained and the machinery at once set for their capture.

Wong Duck, the first man taken, is an old timer here in Fresno and well-known to the police. He has never had any visible occupation, living as all of his class on his society as long as he does their bidding. At the time of his arrest Wednesday night, he had the long knife of the typical highlander concealed in his clothing.

Yee Foo, the San Francisco prisoner, was one of the men that came down here to murder Lonnie, of whose coming a warning was sent ahead. He and Wong Duck were two of the three pistol men on the fatal night. Chief White sent Constable Dumas north last evening for Foo and he will probably get here this evening.

Y. M. C. A. Auxiliary Entertains.

This afternoon in the association rooms of the Y. M. C. A. the ladies' auxiliary will entertain at a reception in honor of Secretary and Mrs. Smith, who leave soon for their new home in the north. On account of the shortness of the time the ladies take this means of extending the invitation to all members of the auxiliary and to the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A.

TO PROTECT SONG BIRDS.

Organization of Audubon Society Expected Last Night.

There was a good attendance and much interest at the meeting of citizens in the Grammar school last evening to form an Audubon society. W. R. McIntosh was elected temporary chairman and P. M. Lane temporary secretary. Temporary organization being thus formed brief addresses were made by a number of the leaders in the movement. Mr. McIntosh spoke of the practical benefit to the farmer and fruit grower of wild birds and the necessity for their preservation. Mrs. W. N. Sherman explained what an Audubon society is and described the law for the protection of song birds. Chester H. Rowell spoke of the several methods by which song birds could be protected, one being the passage of laws to prohibit the use of their bodies on hats. He also referred to the necessity of the game warden having public support. C. L. McLane told of the work being done in the school department to instill a love for song birds in the pupils. Mr. Lane gave a description of a number of birds in this vicinity.

Officers were then elected as follows: C. L. McLane, president; Mrs. W. N. Sherman, vice-president; J. D. Cunningham, honorary vice-president; W. R. McIntosh, secretary; Mrs. J. C. Hughes, treasurer; committee on permanent organization—F. M. Lane, Mrs. A. C. Swartz, Mrs. W. R. McIntosh, Mrs. C. H. Miller, Mrs. R. C. Warner, and R. McCourt.

The society adjourned to meet a week from tomorrow at 3 o'clock in the Grammar school assembly hall.

Y. M. C. A. BASKET BALL.

Four Teams of Six Men Each to be Formed.

The first basket ball meeting of the season took place last evening at the Young Men's Christian Association, fifteen teams of six men each were formed. The work forward, organization took place promptly, and the outlook for a prosperous term and the best of feeling is bright.

Delbert Ruth was elected as president of the team and Clarence Wallace as secretary. A committee of three was appointed to assist the physical director in his decisions regarding the assignments of work.

It was decided to form four teams of six men each. These will be worked up during the following week. A series of eighteen games is to be arranged, beginning about November 15th. The teams will compete for the Warner trophy.

Physical Director Fee will pick an association team in a short time to play games that may be arranged with other clubs or societies. A committee will also be appointed to select up interesting numbers for the evenings upon which games are to be played.

Gold Bracelets

are to be quite the fad this winter.

They're to be worn with short sleeves and mousquetaire gloves—for they add much beauty and style to all costumes.

Some of these bracelets are just plain circles of gold; others are heavier and fancier, while others are still more elaborate and jeweled.

Get yours now while we have so many pretty ones.
